If someone crossed a line with you, how would you respond?

What things can you say ‘NO’ to at home? At school?

What’s most important to you in friendships?

What would you do if you and a friend disagree?

You respond if someone disrespected one of your values?

How do you find out if it’s okay to hug or touch someone?

How could you help someone being picked on?

How can you communicate that you don’t want to talk about something?